CELEBRATIONS

(Left to right) Assistant Superintendent Garrick Peterson, Superintendent Paul Sweat, Director of Curriculum Tod Johnson and Director of Secondary Education Stephanie Discher hold the trophy celebrating Wasatch as the No. 1 district for Reading.

Board Member Dickerson presented Superintendent Sweat with a "Reading State Champions 2023" trophy, and said: "This is for Superintendent Sweat and for the rest of the district and everybody under the sun in the district for their accomplishment. We want to recognize their hardworking efforts night and day for many, many years to reach this achievement."

The second celebration was Principal Justin Kelly introducing Assistant Principal Tara Jarvie to celebrate Wasatch High School's Wellness Night which addressed drug awareness and was targeted to both parents and students.

For the third celebration, Wasatch PEAK (Parents Empowering Abled Kids) Parent Network presented the keys to an accessible van they fundraised to purchase to help transport students with significant disabilities in the Learning Lab.
